

Julie Harboe is an art historian, curator. She co-founded and -managed the interdisciplinary art space forumclaque in Baden CH 1993-1999. 2001-2004 she worked at Collegium Helveticum and GTA ETH Zürich. From 2007-2012 she developed and coordinated the new unit for artistic research at Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts (LUASA), Department of Art and Design and 2012-2014 headed the CC Arts Materials Research. 2014-15 she was associate researcher in the project Size Matters at Zurich University of the Arts and from 2014 she has been lecturer at LUASA School of Business in Future Laboratory CreaLab with a focus on transdisciplinarity, materiality, new forms of teaching and innovation processes between research and practice.